

---

Art is simply the artist expressing in object form his awareness of a significant aspect of existence. Philosophy may be regarded as that form of literary art in which the awareness is expressed through concepts.

